

About the product

Indeed Certificate Manager is the system designed to deploy, manage and control user authentication cards (USB tokens and smart cards) enterprise-wide. The Indeed CM provides for centralized management of authentication cards through the whole of their life cycle, controls the cryptographic protection means and logs their usage. The system also provides for quick solving of user problems on their own, including the situations beyond the enterprise bounds, without addressing the administrators.

- Tasks
- Module description
 - Server part
 - Client part
- Component interaction scheme